PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Product Data Analyst

Ontario Nutri Lab | September – December 2025

- Worked in a team of 4 to analyze data on feline dietary preferences and health outcomes using SQL, Python (pandas, NumPy), and Tableau, to drive evidence-based B2B product formulations
- Individually responsible for identifying clear preference patterns by evaluating consumption rates, repeat selection, and behavioural responses, allowing partners to understand which foods cats preferred and tolerated best, focusing on ingredient effectiveness, palatability, and consumer response.
- Communicated findings with cross-functional B2B partner brands including Royal Canin, Hill's Pet Nutrition, and Purina Canada, explaining how each formulation performed and what it should be positioned for.
- Forecasted market trends and presented detailed performance reports to marketing and product strategy stakeholders, directly influencing retail placement decisions at major chains including Petco and Walmart
- Leveraged advanced statistical methods and data presentation tools (Excel, Power BI) to identify key performance indicators and predict market trends, enhancing decision-making accuracy.
- Facilitated cross-functional communication by translating complex datasets into clear, strategic business insights, improving stakeholder engagement and campaign effectiveness.
- Served as one of ONL's data representatives for bi-weekly round table discussions, answering partner questions and clarifying how ingredient profiles and formulation choices translated into real-world cat reactions.

Human Resources & Marketing Intern

Procor Limited | February 2022 – July 2022

- Assisted in designing and published job advertisements across online platforms (Linkdin, Indeed, GlassDoor) optimizing role descriptions to attract qualified candidates and increasing applicant volume by 10%.
- Audited and updated HR databases with 500+ employee records, ensuring 100% accuracy for payroll and compliance reporting.
- Assisted in organizing 2 company-wide engagement initiatives in Oakville, ON, drafting internal newsletters and promotional materials.
- Coordinated 7 interviews by liaising with department managers and candidates, reducing average scheduling delays by 40%.

LEADERSHIP & COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Public Relations & Marketing Coordinator

UW Film Society | January 2024 – Present

- Led promotional campaigns to increase club membership, leveraging social media, email outreach, and on-campus events and grew the community members by 80% through 2 terms (Winter 2025 - Spring 2025).
- Negotiated partnerships with local businesses and event venues, including Princess Cinemas, to host two short-film contest screenings; coordinated food and beverage sponsorships with local food start-ups and chains to enhance audience experience, drawing in 120-150 paid attendees per screening.
- Used Canva, Figma, and AI tools to design visually compelling posters, interactive social media graphics, and digital content to enhance brand visibility on social media (Instagram) and attract new members.
- Built partnerships with other campus organizations (Photography Club, Entomology Club, Beauty Club) to expand outreach and co-host events, improving cross-club collaboration
